Philadelphia City Guide

Overview

Set your sights on Philadelphia, where history meets family fun! Spend your days exploring iconic landmarks like the Liberty Bell and Independence Hall and don't forget to snap a photo with the famous Rocky statue at the Philadelphia Museum of Art. For a day filled with excitement, head to Sesame Place® Philadelphia, where your favorite furry friends come to life with thrilling rides and water attractions. Adventure seekers can take a trip to Hersheypark, just a short drive away, for a day of roller coasters and chocolatey treats! Don't miss the Penn Museum, where ancient artifacts and interactive exhibits offer a fun and educational experience for all ages. Whether you're indulging in a classic Philly cheesesteak or exploring vibrant neighborhoods, Philadelphia promises unforgettable adventures for the whole family!

Best Time to Visit

March to May and September to November, with mild temperatures in the 50s to 70s. This is a great time to enjoy outdoor attractions and festivals while avoiding the summer crowds or major snowstorms.

What We Love

- A rich blend of history and culture, from museums to national landmarks.
  - Family-friendly attractions like Sesame Place and nearby Hersheypark for thrilling fun.
  - Delicious food options, including famous cheesesteaks, soft pretzels and sweet treats.
  - Philadelphia is full of excitement with concerts and theater events in its historic venues and parks.

Fun Facts About Philadelphia

- Philadelphia is home to the Liberty Bell, which is an iconic symbol of American independence.
- The city has over 4,000 murals, making it one of the largest outdoor art galleries in the country.
- Philadelphia is the birthplace of the U.S. Constitution and Declaration of Independence, both signed in Independence Hall.
- It is also home to the famous Philly cheesesteak, which is a must-try for any visitor!

Be sure to catch a sports game while in Philadelphia, home to passionate fans who fervently support their teams, including the Philadelphia Eagles, Philadelphia Phillies, Philadelphia 76ers and Philadelphia Flyers.
